While crossing Main street in front of the old city building yesterday afternoon, James R. Truby picked up from the street a large pocketbook, bulging with bills. He at once noticed that the book was heavy, as though it had been handled by a butcher. Seeing a meat cart from Plainfield going down the street, Mr. Truby ran and caught up with it and asked the driver if he had lost anything. The driver did not think he had, but, on searching his pockets, he was surprised to find his pocketbook.

He told Mr. Truby that there was between $200 and $300 in the book, and he promptly handed Mr. Truby a Christmas present.

Those who wish to give contributions of food and provisions for the Salvation Army's Christmas dinner for the poor are requested to send them to the army hall on Main street, at any time on Thursday or Friday forenoon, as the baskets will be packed Friday afternoon, ready to be sent out early Christmas morning. A Christmas tree will be provided for the children of the families who receive the baskets, Thursday evening, December 30, and contributions for this are solicited, of clothing, new and second-hand toys, or anything calculated to delight the hearts of children. A good deal has already been given, but still more is needed, and it is hoped that everyone will do all that is possible to assist in this Christmas work.

What Are We Doing for Christmas Shoppers?

We are trying to supply them with the best assortment of staple and fancy Dry Goods that we have ever offered and to make sales larger and to encourage easy buying we are taking a part of our profit from the price usually asked for same goods. This does not apply to everything but to a great many things in our stock today. The following are some of them.

For Christmas

Our line of Ribbons is priced very closely just now, and the quality is of that kind that pleases the customer. It will please anyone who may receive it.

These Ribbons work well in fancy work and are good enough for neckwear or hair ribbons, and the price is 5c, 10c, 15c and 19c.

Our Neckwear was bought right, and when the price could be reduced we have done it. You will find many pieces at 25c that are up to 50c kinds, and there are a few 75c fancy Collars, the latest, at 50c. This makes a good purchase.

We have very low prices on all kinds of new Hat Ornaments and Hat Pins.

Our Cut Glass is now but two-thirds of its original price. Till we are closing out.

Punch Bowls with glasses to match, also a stand for bowl, all for only $2.45. About half price.
